Disclosure Authorization

Federal law requires this consent form be provided to you. We cannot disclose your tax return information to third parties without your written consent, unless authorized by law, for purposes other than the preparation and filing of your tax return. If you consent to the disclosure of your tax return information, federal law may not protect your tax return information from further use.

You are not required to complete this form. If we obtain your signature on this form by conditioning our services on your consent, your consent will not be valid. If you agree to the disclosure of your tax return information, your consent is valid for the amount of time that you specify. If you don't specify a time limit, the consent is good for one year.

If you believe that your tax return information has been disclosed or used improperly in a manner unauthorized by law or without your written permission – you may contact the Treasury Inspector General of Tax Administration (TIGTA) by telephone at (800)366-4484 or by email at complaints@tigta.treas.gov
